A

Aldrich, D. F., and DeKay, H. G., factors affecting the in vitro activity of sulfonamide ointments, 17
Aragon, A., see Bachstez, M.
Auerbach, M. E., the spectrophotometric estimation of dihydroxyanthranol and dihydroxyanthraquinone, 310

B

Bachstez, M., and Aragon, A., Notes on Mexican drugs, plants, and foods. III. Ahuauhtli, the Mexican caviar, 170
Baker, S. L., see Thomas, G. W.
Baker, W. B., thiouracil in hyperthyroidism, 249
Bandelin, F. J., the gravimetric determination of aluminum in pharmaceutical preparations, 232; the leucocyte response to pyrogen in rabbits, 48; see Kemp, C. R.
Barnard, R. D., the pharmaceutic utilization of materials derived from human erythrocytes, 177
Barry, R. H., and Puetzer, B., quaternary ammonium salts of sulfanilamide derivatives, 244
Beal, G. D., see Waters, K. L.
Bell, C. W., the determination of nitrogen in theobromine by the Kjeldahl method, 238
Benica, W. S., and Gisvold, O., the synthesis of 2-hydroxyisophthalic acid and some of its derivatives, 42
Bissell, H., Moeller, H. W., and Seif, L. D., the strectrophotometric determination of quinacrine hydrochloride (atebrine), 291
Block, P., Jr., and Waters, K. L., the determination of iodine in organic compounds, 192
Bohrer, C. R., report of the committee on membership, 379; report of the committee on National Pharmacy Week, 379
Bowen, C. V., alkaloids in Nicotiana attenuata and Nicotiana trigonophylla, 199
Brewer, J. H., and Dunning, F., a system for the aseptic processing of ampuls, 119
Brodie, D. C., Hiestand, W. A., and Jenkins, G. L., the inhibitory effect of certain naphthoquinones on the hemorrhagic action of dicumarol, 73
Brown, C. M., report of the secretary of the Section on Historical Pharmacy, 364 Burlage, H. M., report of the National Pharmaceutical Syllabus committee, 397; see La Rocca, J.
Burt, J. B., report of the committee on personnel problems, 395

SUBJECT INDEX

Ahuauhtli, the Mexican caviar, III. Notes on Mexican drugs, plants, and foods, 170
Alkaloids, ergot, a study of the responses of intact canine uteri following orally administered, 94
Lycopodium, the pharmacologic action of certain, 197
in Nicotiana attenuata and Nicotiana trigonophylla, 199
Aluminum, the gravimetric determination of, in pharmaceutical preparations, 232
American Council on Pharmaceutical Education, Inc., 367
American Society of Hospital Pharmacists, 365
5-Aminoquinoline, the synthesis of derivatives of, 147
Ammonia, a chemical study of aromatic spirit of, 216
Ampuls, a system for the aseptic processing of, 119
Anesthetics, on the influence of several, on the fatal dose of digitalis in cats and frogs, 90
Annual Reports of the Officers and Committees of the AMERICAN PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION 1944–1945, 349
Antiseptic ointments, sulfated product in, VII. Hydrogenated castor oil as an ointment base, 218
Antiseptics, evaluation of some liquid, 219 of the quaternary ammonium type in the presence of positive and negative gelatin, 201
Areca, a study of some of the N. F. VII requirements for, 45
Arnica flowers, adulterated, 151
Arnicas, a pharmacognostical study of European and American, 65
Aromatic spirit of ammonia, a chemical study of, 216
Aseptic processing of ampuls, a system for the, 119
Atabrine, toxic effects of, following intravenous injection, 20
(Atebrin) quinacrine hydrochloride, the spectrophotometric determination of, 291
Auditor's Report, 341

Barbituric acid derivatives. Pharmacological relationship of a series of butenyl-alkyl barbituric and thiobarbituric acid compounds, 183
Base-exchange procedure, a modified, and apparatus for determination of thiamin and riboflavin, 306
Belladonna, the effects of certain harvesting and mulching practices on the yield and survival of, 28 tincture of, and tincture of digitalis, the effect of copper and zinc metals on, 1
Bentonite, a comparative study of the suspending properties of, with special reference to, 302
Bentonite U. S. P., and Magma Bentonite N. F., 129
Bisulfite-binding substances, a new nitroprusside color reaction for, 293

Camphor, from camphor basil (Ocimum kilimadscharicum Guerke, 153
Canine uteri, intact, a study of the responses of, following orally administered ergot alkaloids, 94
Cascara sagrada berries, an adulterant of buckthorn berries, N. F. VII, 174
Castor oil, hydrogenated, as an ointment base. VII. Sulfated product in antiseptic ointments, 218
Cathartic activity of senna in mice, factors influencing the, 260
Certificate of Incorporation, 330
Cetylpyridinium chloride, the effect of, on the bacterial growth in the oral cavity, 5
Chloroform, spirit of, N. F. VII, 213
Cinchonine, quinine, quinidine, and cinchonidine, microscopic identification of the crystalline thiocyanates of, 300
Clays, a comparative study of the suspending properties of, with special reference to bentonite, 302
Cocaine, and estradiol benzoate, qualitative determination of, 245
Code of Ethics, 331
Color matching fluids, a new system of, 59

Convara, studies on the stability of, V. The potency of a new extract of Convallaria majalis leaves, 149
Copper and zinc metals, the effect of, on tincture of digitalis and tincture of belladonna, 1
Council
Officers and committees, list of, see Official Roster report of (incorporated in the Secretary's report), 351

D

DDT, a synthesis of, 259
Deceased members, 478
Dehydroascorbic acid, a qualitative test for, 190
Density, solubility, and melting point of phenolphthalein, 76
Diaphoretic, hexadienol—a locally acting, and a new diagnostic agent, 221
Dicumarol, the inhibitory effect of certain naphthoquinones on the hemorrhagic action of, 73
Digitalis, on the influence of several anesthetics on the fatal dose of, in cats and frogs, 90 tincture of, and tincture of belladonna, the effect of copper and zinc metals on, 1
Dihydroxyanthraquinone, and dihydroxyanthranol, the spectrophotometric estimation of, 310
Diol, identification of a, isolated from, Uva Ursi, 39

Emetic assay, an, for quinacrine hydrochloride in pigeons, 234
Emulsifying agents, water-in-oil. III. Studies of emulsifying efficiencies, 33; IV. Further studies of emulsifying efficiencies. Stability of some emulsions, 36
Emulsions, stability of some. Further studies of emulsifying efficiencies, IV. Water-in-oil emulsifying agents, 36
Enteric coatings, history, literature, and theory of, 135; a study of, 138
Epinephrine, biological assay of, 265
Ergonovine, in ergot, a chemical assay for, compared with the biologic assay 256
Ergot, a chemical assay for ergonovine in, compared with the biologic assay, 256 of wheat and rye, a study of domestic, 11
Ergot alkaloids, a study of the responses of intact canine uteri following orally administered, 94
Erythrocytes, human, the pharmaceutic utilization of materials derived from, 177
Estradiol benzoate, and cocaine, qualitative determination of, 245

G

Gelatin, positive and negative, antiseptics of the quaternary ammonium type in the presence of, 201
Gelatin product, new—"sulfagel," preliminary report of a, 187
Glycol esters, in ointment bases, 56
Glycols, aliphatic, anti-bacterial properties of some mercurials from, 25 polyethylene, of approximate molecular weights of 200, 300, and 400, the subacute toxicity and irritation of, 172
Glycosidal principle of Viburnum prunifolium, characterization of the, 205

H

Hemorrhagic action of dicumarol, the inhibitory effect of certain naphthoquinones on the, 73
Hexadienol, a locally acting diaphoretic and a new diagnostic agent, 221
Hexestrol, the spectrophotometric assay of, and some of its pharmaceutical preparations, 209
House of Delegates, 374
Officers and committees, list of, see Official Roster
Report of the Chairman, 374
Hydrogenated castor oil as an ointment base. VII. Sulfated product in antiseptic ointments, 218
Hydrolysis of zinc salts, VI. Incompatibilities in prescriptions, 163
Hydroxyacetic acid, toxicity of, after prolonged administration: comparison with its sodium salt and citric and tartaric acids, 86
2-Hydroxyisophthalic acid, the synthesis of, and some of its derivatives, 42
Hyperthyroidism, thiouracil in, 249

I

Iodide, the detection of water-soluble inorganic, in thyroid, 296
Iodine content of desiccated thyroid a note on the stability of the 295
the determination of, in organic compounds, 192

K

Kjeldahl method, the determination of nitrogen in theobromine by the, 238

L

Larrea divaricata Cav., a phytochemical, investigation of, 78
a phytochemical study of, with special emphasis on its yellow pigments, 82
Leucoctye response, the, to pyrogen in rabbits, 48
Lophanthus anisatus Benth, the volatile oil from, 240
Lycopodium alkaloids, the pharmacologic action of certain, 197

M

Magma Bentonite N. F. and Bentonite U. S. P., 129
Medical research developments, needed, in industry, 123
Melting point, density, and solubility of phenolphthalein, 76 determinations, effect of time and temperature in the preparation of certain fats and waxes for, 165
Membership Lists
Active Members, 414
Associate (Student) Members, 466
Deceased Members, 478
Honorary Members, 414
Menadione sodium bisulfite, note on the quantitative determination of, 247
Menthol, racemic, some physical and chemical properties of commercial, 52
Mercurials from aliphatic glycols, antibacterial properties of some, 25
Mexican drugs, plants, and foods. III. Ahuauhtli, the Mexican caviar, 170
Mints, investigations of the yield and quality of the oils from some hybrid and tetraploid, 225

N

Naphthoquinones, the inhibitory effect of certain, on the hemorrhagic action of dicumarol, 73
N. F. VII requirements for areca, a study of some of the, 45
Nicotiana attenuata, and Nicotiana trigonophylla, alkaloids in, 199
Nitrogen, the determination of, in theobromine by the Kjeldahl method, 238
Nitroprusside color reaction, a new, for bisulfite-binding substances, 293

O

(Ocimum kilimandscharicum Guerke) camphor basil, camphor from, 153
Officers, list of, of the AMERICAN PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION since its organization, 405
Officers and committees 1945–1946, list of, see Official Roster
Oil, hydrogenated castor, as an ointment base. VII. Sulfated product in antiseptic ointments, 218
Oils, investigations of the yield and quality of the, from some hybrid and tetraploid mints, 225
Ointment, wound-healing, bacteriological and toxicity studies on a, 143
Ointment base, hydrogenated castor oil as an. VII. Sulfated product in antiseptic ointments, 218
Ointment bases, glycol esters in, 56
Ointments, antiseptic, sulfated product in, VII. Hydrogenated castor oil as an ointment base, 218 sulfonamide, factors affecting the in vitro activity of, 17
Organic compounds, the determination of iodine in, 192

P

Penicillin, is the indiscriminate use of, imminent, 126
a review, 97
sodium, the stability of, held at various temperatures, 110
the thermostability of pyrogens and their removal from, 114
Phenolphthalein, solubility, density, and melting point of, 76
Pigeons, an emetic assay for quinacrine hydrochloride in, 234
Pigments, yellow, a phytochemical study of Larrea divaricata Cav. with special emphasis on its, 82
Polyethylene glycols of approximate molecular weights of 200, 300, and 400; the subacute toxicity and irritation of, 172
Prescriptions, incompatibilities in. VI. Hydrolysis of zinc salts, 163
Pyrogen in rabbits, the leucocyte response to ,48
Pyrogens, the thermostability of, and their removal from penicillin, 114

Quaternary ammonium salts of sulfanilamide derivatives, 244
Quinacrine hydrochloride (atebrine), the spectrophotometric determination of, 291 an emetic assay for, in pigeons, 234
Quinidine, quinine, cinchonine, and cinchonidine, microscopic identification of the crystalline thiocyanates of, 300
Quinine, quinidine, cinchonine, and cinchonidine, microscopic identification of the crystalline thiocyanates of, 300

Rabbits, the leucocyte response to pyrogen in, 48
Racemic menthol, some physical and chemical properties of commercial, 52
Reports of Committees, see under Committees
Reports of Officers (General)
President, 350
Secretary, 351
Treasurer, 357
Reports of Officers of Sections, see Sections
Research developments, needed medical, in industry, 123
Riboflavin, and thiamin, a modified base-exchange procedure and apparatus for determination of, 306

S

Sections
Education and Legislation, 363
Historical Pharmacy, 364
Pharmaceutical Economics, 364
Practical Pharmacy, 362
Scientific, 359
Senna, factors influencing the cathartic activity of, in mice, 260 and its preparations, the white rat in the biological assay of, 211
Solubility, density, and melting point of phenolphthalein, 76
Spectrophotometric estimation of dihydroxyanthranol and dihydroxyanthraquinone, 310
Streptomycin—origin, nature, and properties, 273
"Sulfagel," preliminary report of a new gelatin product, 187
Sulfanilamide derivatives, quaternary ammonium salts of, 244
Sulfapyrazine, identification of, through ultraviolet fluorescence of 2-aminopyrazine, 196
Sulfated product in antiseptic ointments, VII. Hydrogenated castor oil as an ointment base, 218
Sulfonamide ointments, factors affecting the in vitro activity of, 17
Sulfonamides, determination of, in tablets, 236

T

Tablets, determination of sulfonamides in, 236
Theobromine, the determination of nitrogen in, by the Kjeldahl method 238
Thiamin, and riboflavin, a modified base-exchange procedure and apparatus for determination of, 306
Thiobarbituric and barbituric compounds, butenyl-alkyl, pharmacological relationship of a series of. Barbituric acid derivatives, 183
Thiocyanates, crystalline, of quinine, quinidine, cinchonine, and cinchonidine, microscopic identification of the, 300
Thiouracil in hyperthyroidism, 249
Thyroid, the detection of water-soluble inorganic iodide in, 296 a modification of the U. S. P. XII assay for desiccated, 297

a note on the stability of the iodine content of desiccated, 295

U

Ultraviolet fluorescence of 2-aminopyrazine, identification of sulfapyrazine through, 196
United States Pharmacopœial Convention, Fifth Annual Financial Report, 269
U. S. P. XII assay for desiccated thyroid, a modification of the, 297
Uteri, intact canine, a study of the responses of, following orally administered ergot alkaloids, 94
Uva Ursi, identification of diol isolated from, 39

V

Viburnum prunifolium, characterization of the glycosidal principle of, 205
Volatile oil, the, from Lophanthus anisatus Benth, 240

W

Water-in-oil emulsifying agents. III. Studies of emulsifying efficiencies, 33; IV. Further studies of emulsifying efficiencies. Stability of some emulsions, 36
Waxes, and fats, effect of time and temperature in the preparation of, certain, for melting-point determinations, 165
Wound-healing ointment, bacteriological and toxicity studies on a, 143

Z

Zinc and copper metals, the effect of, on tincture of digitalis and tincture of belladonna, 1
Zinc salts, hydrolysis of. VI. Incompatabilities in prescriptions, 163
